Section 5 Student Remarks

The NADB Bursary Partnership Program is intended to attract graduates to live and work in northern Alberta. Bursary recipients must live and work in northern Alberta within six months of graduation. The Return of Service Obligation is one full-time month (or equivalent) for every $500 of bursary funds received. Students who do not work in the north will be required to repay the bursary.

What are your main reasons for wanting to live and work in northern Alberta?

Outline the employment opportunities you see in northern Alberta in your field of studies:

Section 7 Declaration of Applicant

I declare that:

I have read and understand the instructions, and declare that:

- All information provided in this application, including any supplemental information required to establish my eligibility (the "Application"), is true and complete and I understand that the information is subject to review and audit.
- I have read and understood the eligibility requirements and obligations of the bursary as stated on the Northern Alberta Development Bursary (NADB) website.
- I will immediately notify the Advanced Education (AE) in writing if I withdraw from studies or of any changes to my name, address, academic status or study period or to any other information contained in the Application. The email address for AE is ae.albertascholarships@gov.ab.ca.

Disclosure of Information

I understand that Jobs, Economy and Trade (JET) may disclose my personal information to employers or other government agencies for consideration under the Bursary Partnership program or to employers interested in hiring bursary recipients.

I understand that AE may disclose and exchange my personal information with:

- Provincial and federal government departments (including Employment and Social Development (Canada) and the educational institution(s) named in the Application to determine and verify eligibility for financial assistance, to administer (including research, statistical analysis, and evaluations) and to enforce student financial assistance programs in accordance with the Student Financial Assistance Act (Alberta);
- AE to verify my Alberta Student Number, name, date of birth, and gender solely to confirm identification for the purpose of the bursary application; and
- Any third-party or third-party organizations involved in the selection of the recipient or authorized to collect a debt owed to the Crown.

I understand that:

- I may have to immediately repay my bursary if there are changes to my educational institution, program or study period, or I do not fulfill my return of service requirement.
- If I make a false or misleading statement in this application or fail to disclose information as requested by AE or JET, I may be denied financial assistance and/or required to immediately repay all financial assistance received.
- AE and JET are not responsible for securing my employment after I have completed my course of study.
- To provide all information requested by AE or JET which is required to verify any statements made in this application.
- JET may be contacting and obtaining information from future employer(s) to verify employment data as required under the conditions of the bursary contract; and
- I may be contacted and asked to participate in research and data collection for up to 5 years following the completion of the return of service obligation for the purposes of statistical analysis and program evaluation.

If I receive a bursary, my name, the award and my city/town may be released publicly to promote the program. My name, the name of the scholarship and the scholarship amount may also be published on the Government of Alberta Grant Disclosure Portal. However, my consent to the publication of this personal information is not a criterion for eligibility, and if I do not want to be identified, I will contact AE - Alberta Student Aid at ae.albertascholarship@gov.ab.ca and request that it not be disclosed.
